

BIOL 3863: General Ecology

Ecological principles and concepts; environmental factors and interactions that determine the distribution and abundance of organisms

This course is offered in the Fall and Spring semesters. Dr. Evans-White teaches the fall semester.

	Placentals	Marsupials
Doglike carnivore	Wolf (Canis)	Tasmanian wolf (Thylacinus)
Catlike carnivore	Ocelot (Felis)	Native cat (Dasyurus)
Arboreal glider	Flying squirrel (Glaucomys)	Flying phalanger (Petaurus)
Fossorial herbivore	Ground hog (Marmota)	Wombat (Vombatus)
Digging ant feeder	Anteater (Myrmecophaga)	Anteater (Myrmecobius)
Subterranean insectivore	Common mole (Talpa)	Marsupial mole (Notoryctes)